- 6:12 pm paulardoin: @TShryerPR: I have no clients' prospects & customers who check press releases. They prefer opt-in blasts in my exp. #solopr
- 6:12 pm karens swim: @akenn It is preferred but do they prefer a general email blast to a targeted, custom pitch? #solopr
- 6:12 pm PRProSanDiego: Q1: Annual surveys show wires are the LEAST favorite way for journos to receive releases. They want to visit websites for info. #soloPR
- 6:13 pm karens swim: @MediaCoach Your time was short but sweet :-)) Have a great evening! #solopr
- 6:13 pm luannsaid: @PRjeff Ain't that the truth. #solopr

- 6:14 pm karens swim: RT @MuslimNewMedia: a1 I've been using Pitch Engine for general surfacing & link to that in SM uses + individual targeted emails #solopr
- 6:14 pm akenn: @karens swim Seems #2: targeted, custom pitch, that's well-researched natch is preferred-is it poss to do this on wide scale? #solopr
- 6:14 pm karens swim: @MuslimNewMedia Love Pitch Engine! #solopr
- 6:14 pm PRjeff: I feel sorry for their dogs. RT @luannsaid: Aint that the truth. #solopr
- 6:15 pm deegospel: a1: i send personal emails to media clients about my news. there are a lot of things I do instead of spamming #solopr
- 6:15 pm KellyeCrane: A1: Along these lines, if I don't have an established list for a new client, I usually bring in a subcontractor who does to help. #solopr

- 6:15 pm cgornpr: @PRjeff @PRProSanDiego All I ever ever seen wires get me is coverage in places where the only benefit was a bigger clip book. :) #solopr
- 6:15 pm karensxim: @akenn I don't think that's possible on a wide scale but I am willing to be educated if someone knows differently :-)) #solopr
- 6:15 pm TShryerPR: @paulardoin @TShryerPR i hear from clients that releases work when prospects are looking for solutions. i have tech clients. you? #solopr
- 6:15 pm SoloPR: Definitely, but when targeted RT @akenn: Devil's advocate here: reporters say email is their preferred method of contact... #solopr
- 6:15 pm 3hatscomm: RT @MediaCoach: A1 Fewer, more targeted emails is a more effective policy than a blast. More coverage, less annoyance, no spam #solopr
- 6:15 pm ScottHepburn: One of my favorite Twitter chats, #solopr, is happening right now. Follow the hashtag to pick up practical PR tips.
- 6:16 pm dcaplick: @PRjeff #solopr The purpose of wires is no longer to reach journalists, but to be "out there" online for anyone to find through searching.
- 6:16 pm CjShaffer1: A1 It makes way more sense to customize each pitch. It is more effective + helps develop relationships with target media #solopr
- 6:16 pm karensxim: In contrast to others I've had good results with wire services, don't use all the time but it's been very positive #solopr
- 6:17 pm PRjeff: @cgornpr @PRProSanDiego Does the coverage ever produce results for the client and not just clipbook? Curious. #solopr
- 6:17 pm PRProSanDiego: @cgornpr @PRjeff Agreed. Wires are a pay for performance racket IMHO. #soloPR
- 6:17 pm paulardoin: @TShryerPR Releases are def good for my tech clients to get MORE prospects, but not reach those already contacted. #solopr
- 6:17 pm TShryerPR: RT @karensxim: In contrast to others I've had good results with wire services, dont use all the time but its been very positive #solopr
- 6:17 pm luannsaid: @karensxim It totally depends on your client/purpose (re: wires) #solopr

- 6:18 pm PRProSanDiego: @PRjeff @cgornpr Ha, we think exactly alike on this one. Some clients insist, though. It's their money & they can ignore my advice. #soloPR
- 6:18 pm kgombita: @mediacoach also known as "spray and pray" (from your Canadian #solopr colleague)....
- 6:18 pm 3hatscomm: Great question. RT @PRjeff: @cgornpr @PRProSanDiego Does coverage ever produce results for the client, not just clipbook? #solopr
- 6:18 pm karensxim: @akenn Part of it may be dumb luck, lol but I try to be strategic in the distribution targeting & content #solopr
- 6:19 pm mami2mommy: RT @karensxim: @MuslimNewMedia Love Pitch Engine! #solopr <working more with SM, pitch engine has been great!
- 6:19 pm TShryerPR: @PRProSanDiego @cgornpr @PRjeff i think great for SEO. They have their place so long as expectations are set. More PR than MR #solopr
- 6:19 pm paulardoin: @SoloPR Re: social media for wide release: 1 client asked about PressDoc. Looks like SM+PR. Any experience? #solopr
- 6:19 pm karensxim: Yes, I think you're right RT @luannsaid: @karensxim It totally depends on your client/purpose (re: wires) #solopr
- 6:19 pm MuslimNewMedia: @karensxim what are your favorite wire services? #SoloPR

- 6:19 pm KellyeCrane: A1: I think the only thing wires are good for is SEO - but if the story is big enough, you can get some pickup sometimes. #solopr
- 6:19 pm janetfalk: What about the "FREE" wires - the no-cost web distribution sites? Who uses them? Who finds them helpful? #solopr
- 6:19 pm cgornpr: @PRjeff @cgornpr @PRProSanDiego Not that I saw the last time I used one. I did not result in ticket sales. #solopr
- 6:20 pm karensxim: @MuslimNewMedia PRNewswire and I am digging Cision's SEO service #solopr
- 6:20 pm luannsaid: Yup RT @KellyeCrane: A1: ..only thing wires are good for is SEO-but if the story is big enough, you can get some pickup sometimes. #solopr
- 6:20 pm cgornpr: @PRProSanDiego @cgornpr @PRjeff But, I had a killer report at the end. I think they help with SEO, etc. Have seen no results. #solopr
- 6:20 pm akenn: @janetfalk I did experiment & uploaded recent press release to 3 diff free distribution sites-VERY disappointed-U get what U pay 4 #solopr
- 6:20 pm karensxim: @janetfalk There's a good link to a review of free sites in the solopr LinkedIn group, they're not all bad #solopr
- 6:20 pm deegospel: true RT @KellyeCrane: A1: I think the only thing wires are good for is SEO, but if the story is big enough, you can get some pickup #solopr
- 6:21 pm mami2mommy: RT @luannsaid: @karensxim It totally depends on your client/purpose (re: wires) #solopr
- 6:21 pm cgornpr: @TShryerPR @PRProSanDiego @cgornpr @PRjeff I totally agree. It is just tough we you need to have what I call "butts in seats press" #solopr
- 6:21 pm cgornpr: @TShryerPR @PRProSanDiego @cgornpr @PRjeff vs. image press. #solopr
- 6:21 pm akenn: Sometimes SEO is strong enough reason to do it RT @KellyeCrane A1: I think the only thing wires are good for is SEO #solopr
- 6:21 pm jgombita: @KellyeCrane I don't know if it's the same with AP, but if the Canadian Press (CP) picks up a newswire story it's phenomenal..... #solopr
- 6:21 pm SoloPR: FYI- Nice discussion on related topic took place in the #solopr LinkedIn group: <http://linkd.in/dOowTy>
- 6:22 pm deegospel: @karensxim agree. you have to check the wires, create content worthy release, choose correct category for distribution #solopr
- 6:22 pm karensxim: Agree RT @akenn: Sometimes SEO is strong enough reason RT @KellyeCrane A1: I think the only thing wires are good for is SEO #solopr
- 6:22 pm ScottHepburn: @akenn @KellyeCrane Agree re: SEO sometimes being a good enough reason to use newswires. #solopr
- 6:22 pm janetfalk: @karensxim Thanks. Will check it out. #solopr
- 6:22 pm KellyeCrane: Same! RT @jgombita: I don't know if it's the same with AP, but if the Canadian Press (CP) picks up a newswire story it's phenomenal. #solopr
- 6:22 pm PRjeff: @cgornpr @PRProSanDiego Whatever we do it has to tie into positive results for client-that's the only way we look good #solopr
- 6:23 pm MuslimNewMedia: @karensxim good to know. ..had a Cision demo while back, very excited by what they do #SoloPR
- 6:23 pm SoloPR: RT @akenn: I did experiment & uploaded recent press release to 3 diff free distribution sites-VERY disappointed-U get what U pay 4 #solopr
- 6:23 pm ScottHepburn: @KellyeCrane Would be cool to get perspective on this from the wires. Could we reach out directly and invite them to the chat? #solopr
- 6:24 pm cgornpr: @PRjeff @PRProSanDiego Totally agree. I have been really working with clients on meaningful coverage vs. coverage for coverage sake. #solopr
- 6:24 pm TShryerPR: I always ask about traffic to website after a release is distributed. surprising

- 6:24 pm mami2mommy: RT @janetfalk: What about the "FREE" wires - the no-cost web distribution sites? Who uses them? Who finds them helpful? #solopr
- 6:24 pm cgornpr: RT @PRjeff: @cgornpr @PRProSanDiego Whatever we do it has to tie into positive results for client-that's the only way we look good #solopr
- 6:25 pm luannsaid: @ScottHepburn We've dropped enough wire brand names that certain ones will join the convo in 3...2...1... #solopr
- 6:25 pm lgombita: @kkellerpr @kellyecrane but almost always the AP/CP pickup is via the conventional newswire service(s), eh? #solopr
- 6:25 pm btrandolph: do numbers confirm? @KellyeCrane A1: I think the only thing wires are good for is SEO #solopr
- 6:25 pm karenskim: @MuslimNewMedia They're awesome, too expensive for my needs but I have used them for SEO distribution #solopr
- 6:25 pm krisTK: Sad to miss #solopr today but need to play catch-up for celebrating Mardi Gras. Yes, I did let the good times roll.
- 6:25 pm smrus: Hey, all. Agree wires help w/ SEO & provide some reposts, but often my Clients do it out of habit... nothing more. #solopr
- 6:26 pm ScottHepburn: @luannsaid Ha ha...you would hope. Wait...reputation monitoring? What the...?! #solopr
- 6:26 pm karenskim: did you post results? @akenn: I did experiment & uploaded recent press release to 3 diff free distribution sites-VERY disappointed #solopr
- 6:26 pm fransteps: A1: I have successfully used wire svcs for new biz launch. #solopr.
- 6:26 pm stlpr: RT @SoloPR: RT @cgornpr: A1: I tailor a general pitch, put the rls in the bottom email & send indiv. It takes more time = more response. #solopr
- 6:26 pm karenskim: Lol! RT @krisTK: Sad to miss #solopr today but need to play catch-up for celebrating Mardi Gras. Yes, I did let the good times roll. #solopr
- 6:26 pm PRProSanDiego: @cgornpr @PRjeff Concur on emphasizing results to clients. Amazing how many want visibility (fame) over ROI, but won't admit it. #SoloPR
- 6:27 pm akenn: @karenskim no, but I think it will make a good blog post topic #solopr
- 6:27 pm KellyeCrane: @btrandolph Most #PR pros don't see "real" stories (other than rls postings) from the wires. Many eschew wires completely now #solopr
- 6:27 pm 3hatscomm: @krisTK Good for you! #solopr
- 6:27 pm karenskim: Honestly, some clients could care less about media coverage, they want leads and traffic #solopr
- 6:27 pm stlpr: #SoloPR I try to avoid mass emails. Use online wire services pitchengine, PRLog, etc... save email for direct contact w/ reporters.
- 6:27 pm PRjeff: @PRProSanDiego @cgornpr Yes, I have a client that WANTS me to use free news rls distribution sites. idk if it helps SEO #solopr
- 6:27 pm karenskim: @akenn It would make a great topic! When you write it please share the link #solopr
- 6:28 pm TShryerPR: I have a great contact at BW if you want me to invite her to a future convo. I ask her these types of Qs all the time. #solopr
- 6:28 pm cidokogiPR: : RT @akenn: I did experiment & uploaded recent press release to 3 diff free distribution sites-VERY disappointed-U get what U pay 4 #solopr
- 6:28 pm KellyeCrane: @btrandolph Wire dist definitely still has a place if you're working with a big co and have big news, so you release simultaneously #solopr
- 6:28 pm PRProSanDiego: The only way to salvage value from wires: post links to "coverage" (release postings) on client website/FB and tweet links. #SoloPR
- 6:28 pm dcaplick: @akenn #solopr The trick is to take the fame they crave and use it to generate

ROI

- 6:29 pm SoloPR: I told ya' we were starting with a bang! Q2 up next... #solopr
- 6:29 pm TShryerPR: @KellyeCrane @btrandolph Im not sure about that. as a reporter i used to find contacts for stories. but not for story ideas. #solopr
- 6:29 pm Iuannsaid: @PRProSanDiego I like that. It really is about "salvaging" value most times #solopr
- 6:29 pm mami2mommy: RT @smrus Agree wires help w/ SEO & provide some reposts, but often Clients do it out of habit... nothing more #solopr<need to wean them off!
- 6:29 pm ScottHepburn: Would you call @PitchEngine a newswire? I wouldn't, but I hear misperceptions: Clients see it as newswire 2.0. #solopr

- 6:39 pm SoloPR: Oh my, so true! RT @akenn: I once wrote a blog post called "I work in PR and my family has no idea what I do" #solopr
- 6:40 pm dconconi: If clients are starting to see what we do as "mashed-up" with everything else, no wonder marketers want one agency to service. #solopr
- 6:40 pm mami2mommy: @paulardoin yes the PR definition varies by client and their needs/expectations #solopr for me its meshed w/def of social media
- 6:40 pm 3hatscomm: Heh. RT @akenn: I once wrote a blog post called "I work in PR and my family has no idea what I do" #solopr

- 6:40 pm smrus: Agree w/ @KellyeCrane that industry is awful at own PR. But is crowdsourcing most efficient way to change perspective? #solopr
- 6:40 pm PRProSanDiego: However we define #PR, it's NOT synonymous or synchronous with "Media Relations." I find myself explaining this repeatedly. #soloPR
- 6:40 pm ScottHepburn: @PRjeff @akenn Oy. Been there. #solopr
- 6:40 pm dcaplick: @dconconi #solopr We don't help matters any by using marketing terminology. If it walks like a duck, and talks like a duck... #PR

- 6:41 pm jeremymeyers: @3HatsComm @akenn i worked in PR for a year and a half and i'm still not sure that i actually did anything. #solopr
- 6:41 pm cgornpr: @PRProSanDiego I often say MR is part of the PR package, but not all of it. To me. PR is ads. MR. events. Community Relations & more #solopr

- 6:42 pm garrettkuk: hopefully all PR definitions include active ROI/metrics (awareness, engagement, loyalty, call-to-action) #soloPR

- 6:42 pm janetfalk: @dconconi Be careful if #PR pro does integrated mktg, then integrated mktg will start doing PR. Then where will you be in the mix? #solopr
- 6:42 pm PRProSanDiego: @dcaplick #dconconi Bingo! I find myself explaining diff. btwn marketing & #PR all the time. Yikes, they aren't interchangeable! #soloPR

- 6:43 pm stlpr: @jgombita @luannsaid @tonimuzifalconi #solopr that is sad. We're professionals. There is great info thru PRSA.

- 6:44 pm karensxim: A1: We no longer pick one profession for life so def complicated by indivs with wide ranging experiences that they bring to PR #solopr
- 6:44 pm PRProSanDiego: @cgornpr Remember Venn diagrams? The #PR & #MR circles overlap about 15% for me. I wouldn't call "ads" #PR though. #soloPR
- 6:44 pm fransteps: Love PRSA, but even they can't come up with a definition of our profession that everyone agrees upon. #solopr
- 6:44 pm jgombita: @stlpr agreed. (As a Cdn) I'm jealous of how much info @prsa provides to its (dues-paying) members. NON-members very critical, tho! #solopr
- 6:44 pm MuslimNewMedia: a2 as SM and technology impact comm in general, roles between MR/PR/marketing/advertising overlap. (more) #SoloPR
- 6:44 pm dconconi: @janetfalk @dcaplick - definitely easy for PR to get lost in the crowd #solopr
- 6:44 pm KellyeCrane: A2: I think a lot of times it's like the blind men feeling the elephant: everyone thinks #PR is the part they know about. #solopr
- 6:44 pm mami2mommy: RT @PRjeff: @akenn A2: My 84-yr-old mother often asks, "How's your advertising business going?" #solopr <too funny!
- 6:44 pm akenn: It's tough to get arms around PR b/c unlike CPA firms or law firms, practice of PR manifests differently @ different times #solopr
- 6:45 pm cgornpr: @PRProSanDiego @cgornpr See, I work with a lot of ticket selling organizations and feel like PR should have a say on ads. #solopr
